

Shard End Ward Weekly Review

3rd – 10th April 2014

HEADLINES

- Only two vehicles offences this week, one being a theft of number plates, the other a theft of a phone left inside a vehicle. Please remove all valuables from your vehicles when you leave them and look to secure your number plates with tamper proof screws if possible.
- No Robberies this week.
- Four reports of burglaries this week but all in isolation. Please ensure that you lock your doors and windows and report any suspicious behaviour to us.
- One breach of an anti-social behaviour order this week after members of the team spotted a male in breach at the Heathway. He was arrested and charged with the offence.
- A further report of criminal damage by children throwing stones. Please contact us if you have any information regarding stone throwing.

Recorded Crime	38
ASB Incidents	1

Other Information

A male arrested twice recently by the team for breach of his ASBI (Anti Social Behaviour Injunction) has been sentenced to a further two months imprisonment this week.

The team will be focusing on reducing and preventing business crime over the coming weeks. We are keen to educate retailers to prevent shoplifting from happening before they become victims of crime.

Monday 14th April at 7pm is the Ward Committee meeting at the Library All Saints Square. All are welcome.
